

GUIDELINE ON AGENT BANKING - CBK/PG/15

PART I PRELIMINARY

1.1 Title – Guideline on Agent Banking.

1.2 Authorisation - This Guideline is issued under Section 33(4) of the Banking Act, which empowers the Central Bank of Kenya to issue guidelines to be adhered to by institutions in order to maintain a stable and efficient banking and financial system.

1.3 Application - This Guideline applies to institutions and their duly appointed agents.

1.4 Definitions

“Agent” means an entity that has been contracted by an institution and approved by the Central Bank to provide the services of the institution on behalf of the institution in the manner specified in this Guideline.

“Agent banking business” means the business carried out by an agent on behalf of an institution as permitted under this guideline.

“Institution” has the meaning ascribed to it under the Banking Act.

“Outlet” means an agent’s place of business directly responsible to the Head Office, used for carrying out a commercial activity of the agent but does not include a mobile unit.

“Real time” means the electronic processing of transactional data instantaneously upon data entry or receipt of a command.

Other terms used in this Guideline are as defined in the Banking Act.

1.5 Purpose

The purpose of this Guideline is;

- i) To provide for agent banking as a delivery channel for offering banking services in a cost effective manner.
- ii) To outline activities which can be carried out by an agent and to provide a framework for offering agent banking services.
- iii) To serve as a set of minimum standards of data and network security, customer protection and risk management to be adhered to in the conduct of agent banking business.

1.6 Statement of Policy

This Guideline is intended to:

- i) increase financial services outreach and to promote financial inclusion to the un-banked and under-banked population without risking the safety and soundness of the banking system; and,
- ii) encourage institutions to use agents in the provision of banking services so as to reduce the cost of financial services and to foster financial inclusion, reach and depth.

1.7 Scope

This Guideline provides a clear framework for the conduct of agent banking business.

1.8 Responsibility

1.8.1 The Board of Directors of each institution shall be responsible for formulating policies, procedures and guidelines which ensure that;

- i) Credible agents are identified.
- ii) Risks associated with agent banking are properly identified, documented and mitigated.
- iii) Agent activities are constantly monitored to ensure compliance with the Banking Act, this Guideline and the agency contract.

1.8.2 It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors of each institution to ensure compliance with this Guideline.

PART II REGULATION AND APPROVAL PROCESS

2.1 Approval of agent banking business

2.1.1 An institution may conduct banking business through an agent.

2.1.2 Every institution seeking to conduct banking business through an agent shall apply and obtain the prior written approval of the Central Bank before commencing agent banking business.

2.1.3 The approval of applications for agent banking business by the Central Bank shall be carried out in two phases as provided in this Guideline and will include;

- i) Agent network approval, and
- ii) Specific agent approval.

2.1.4 An application for agent network approval may be submitted to the Central Bank simultaneously with an application for specific agent approval in the form and manner specified in this Guideline.

2.2 Application for agent network approval

2.2.1 An institution intending to engage in agent banking business shall prior to commencement of such business apply to the Central Bank for agent network approval.

2.2.2 An application for agent network approval shall be made only once when an institution intends to engage in agent banking business.

2.2.3 The Applicant will complete the “Application for the approval of agent network” Form and submit the supporting documents set out in the First Schedule. The application form may be obtained from the Bank Supervision Department, Central Bank of Kenya or may be accessed from the Central Bank of Kenya website at www.centralbank.go.ke

2.2.4 The duly completed application including the information specified in this Part and all supporting documents together with a bankers cheque of Kshs. 5,000/= per application payable to the Central Bank of Kenya, being the application fees, should be submitted to the Director, Bank Supervision Department, Central Bank of Kenya, P.O. Box 60000-00200, Nairobi.

2.3 Information required for agent network approval

2.3.1 Every Applicant seeking to engage in agent banking business shall, on a one off basis, submit the following information to the Central Bank;

- i) The proposed number of agents per province over a three year period.
- ii) The institution’s agent due diligence policy and procedures.
- iii) The services to be provided through agents.
- iv) A copy of the draft standard agency contract detailing amongst other things the items specified in Clause 4.5 of this Guideline.
- v) The policies and procedures applicable to the provision of services through agents, as well as a description of the technology to be used.
- vi) A risk assessment report of the operations to be performed through the agents including the mitigating measures to be adopted in order to control the risks identified, in accordance with risk management policies currently in force and this Guideline.
- vii) Internal audit report regarding the adaptation of internal controls performed in readiness for agent banking business.

- viii) Anti-money laundering/Counter Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) policies and procedures.
- ix) Agent operational policies and procedures.

2.3.2 In addition to the above information, the Applicant shall submit;

- i) The institution's delivery channel strategy and how agents fit in this strategy.
- ii) A feasibility study of the global view of future operations and development of the agent business for a minimum period of three years from the date of the application including:
 - a) The geographical and economic service areas of the proposed agents.
 - b) Estimate of total population and economically active population of the areas where the agent will operate.
 - c) Analysis of the relevant market over the past two (2) years, along with an estimate of the proposed agents' volumes/transactions in the institution's delivery channel strategy.
 - d) Description of the agent management structure to be used by the institution.
 - e) Financial projections on the share of the proposed agents in the institution's business.
- iii) A business strategy for agent banking.

2.4 Processing of applications for agent network approval

2.4.1 Upon receipt of the application form together with the required documents, the Central Bank of Kenya will appraise the application.

2.4.2 The institution may be requested to submit such additional information as the Central Bank may deem necessary.

2.5 Approval of agent network

2.5.1 Where the Central Bank is satisfied that all application requirements have been met by an institution, the Central Bank may, within thirty days from the date of submission of the complete application, approve the application with or without conditions and communicate its approval to the institution in writing.

2.5.2 Where the Central Bank declines to approve the application or any part thereof, the Central Bank may within thirty days from the date of submission of the complete application communicate its refusal to the institution in writing and shall state the reasons for its refusal.

2.5.3 An Applicant whose application has been declined in accordance with clause 2.5.2 may resubmit the application upon fulfilment of the conditions communicated by the Central Bank.

2.6 Application for approval of specific agents

2.6.1 An application for specific agent approval will be made on an annual basis and is renewable.

2.6.2 Where an institution seeks to appoint specific entities as agents pursuant to the approval granted under Clause 2.5.1, the institution shall apply to the Central Bank for the approval of the specific agents.

2.6.3 The application for specific agent approval shall be accompanied by the following information:

- i) The names of the proposed agents.
- ii) Physical locations, GPS co-ordinates, postal addresses and telephone numbers of the proposed agents.
- iii) A description of the commercial activities the proposed agents have been carrying on for the last eighteen months immediately preceding the date of the application.
- iv) Any variation in the terms and conditions of the standard contract which is specific to a particular agent.
- v) The banking services to be provided by each agent and the limits to which they will be subject.
- vi) A declaration by the Chief Executive Officer of the institution or a duly designated senior officer confirming that the institution has carried out the suitability assessment of the proposed agents and they have been found to have met the minimum qualifications set out in this Guideline. The Declaration shall be made in accordance with the Second Schedule.
- vii) A bankers cheque of Kshs. 1,000/= per agent or outlet payable to the Central Bank of Kenya, being the approval fees.

2.6.4 An institution may in one application apply for the approval of several entities as its agents and may make one declaration for all the entities as regards their suitability assessment. Institutions are encouraged to make applications for the approval of agents in bulk.

2.6.5 An institution may however at any time in the course of the year apply for the approval of a specific agent or agents.

2.6.6 The application and agent information shall be set out in Form (2a) and Form 2(b) of the First Schedule.

2.7 Central Bank approval of specific agents

2.7.1 Upon receipt of the complete application and all information required together with the approval fees, the Central Bank may within thirty days from the date of receipt of the duly completed application either approve or decline the specified agent with or without conditions and shall give reasons in writing to the Applicant in the event of a declined application.

2.7.2 Where the Central Bank approves any agent, the Central Bank shall issue an approval letter to the Applicant institution permitting the approved Agent to provide, on behalf of the institution, banking services as specified in the letter.

2.7.3 The Central Bank may impose conditions to be complied with by the institution before its application can be resubmitted for approval.

2.7.4 An application which has been declined by the Central Bank may be resubmitted for consideration once the institution complies with all conditions imposed by the Central Bank for the approval of the application.

2.7.5 The Central Bank may approve an application which has previously been declined if the Central Bank is satisfied that the institution has complied with all conditions imposed by the Central Bank for the approval of the application.

2.7.6 An agent approval granted by the Central Bank shall be valid for one year and may be renewed as provided for in this Guideline.

2.8 Annual renewal of specific agent approval

2.8.1 An institution may by an application to the Central Bank renew the approval of a specific agent.

2.8.2 The application shall be in Forms 2(a) and (b) of the First Schedule and shall be accompanied by any changes to the information submitted to the Central Bank under Clause 2.6.3 of this Guideline together with annual renewal fees of Kshs. 1,000/= per agent or outlet. Provided that the declaration required under Clause 2.6.3(vi) of this Guideline shall not necessary for an application under this paragraph to renew a specific agent approval.

- 2.8.3 The annual renewal fees shall be paid within three months before the end of the current financial year.
- 2.8.4 Any institution that fails to pay the annual renewal fees within the prescribed period shall pay double the annual renewal fees if payment is made within ninety days after the end of the financial year.
- 2.8.5 If an institution fails to pay the prescribed fees within ninety days after the end of the financial year, its agent renewal application shall be declined.
- 2.8.6 The financial year for agent banking business shall be the same as that of the institution.

PART III ASSESSMENT OF AGENTS

3.1 Suitability assessment of an agent

- 3.1.1 An institution shall, before seeking the Central Bank's approval of an entity to be contracted as an agent, vet and satisfy itself as to the suitability of the proposed entity and shall establish that;
- i) The entity has an existing well established commercial activity which has been operational for at least eighteen months immediately preceding the date of the suitability assessment.
 - ii) The entity has not been classified as a deficient, doubtful or non-performing borrower by an institution in the last 18 months preceding the date of signing the contract. That status shall be maintained for the duration of the contract.
 - iii) The entity possesses appropriate physical infrastructure and human resources to be able to provide the services with the necessary degree of efficiency and security.
 - iv) For purposes of carrying out an assessment under this Part, the proposed agent shall complete Form 3 of the First Schedule.
- 3.1.2 Prior to the appointment as an agent under this Guideline, any entity that seeks to be appointed as an agent by an institution shall furnish the institution with the following information as applicable;
- i) The name of the entity proposed to be an agent;
 - ii) The certificate of incorporation or certificate of registration of the business name of the entity whichever is applicable;
 - iii) A description of the commercial activity the entity has been carrying on for the last eighteen months immediately preceding the date of the application;

- iv) Valid business licence or permit for any lawful commercial activity carried on by the entity for at least eighteen months prior to the date of the application;
- v) Audited financial statements for the last two years where applicable;
- vi) Certified financial affairs in the case of sole proprietors or partnerships;
- vii) A certificate of good conduct in the case of sole proprietors or partnerships;
- viii) Physical location, GPS co-ordinates, postal address and telephone numbers of the entity and its working hours, and
- ix) Evidence of availability of funds to cover agent operations including deposits and withdrawals by customers.
- x) Any other information as the institution may request.

3.1.3 The institution shall keep confidential and in safe custody the information provided under this Part and shall produce it as and when required by the Central Bank.

3.1.4 The institution shall endeavour to obtain accurate information from the entity and its officers or employees and shall not represent to the Central Bank that it was misled by the entity or its officers.

3.1.5 Any entity which or whose proprietors, partners, officers or employees furnish an institution with false or inaccurate information under this Part shall be disqualified from conducting agent banking business.

3.1.6 Every institution shall sensitize its agents on the provisions of this Guideline and the obligation to comply with its requirements.

3.2 Moral and professional suitability of sole proprietors, partners and officers of a corporate entity

3.2.1 Prior to engaging an entity as an agent, an institution shall assess the moral, business and professional suitability of the sole proprietor or partners of an entity proposed to be appointed as an agent.

3.2.2 In the case of a corporate entity, the institution shall assess the moral, business and professional suitability of the Chief Executive Officer and the officer in charge of or responsible for agent banking operations of the entity.

3.2.3 The persons mentioned in Clauses 3.2.1 and 3.2.2 shall, for the purpose of suitability assessment under this Part, furnish the institution with a duly completed appraisal form being Form 4 of the First Schedule to this Guideline.

3.2.4 An institution may at any time, in addition to the persons to be vetted under this Part, require a director, shareholder, partner, manager or any other officer or employee of an entity to be vetted in accordance with this Guideline if, in the opinion of the institution, the vetting of that person is necessary for the purposes of agent banking business or operations. All suitability assessment requirements under this Part shall apply to such person with such modification as the circumstances may, in each particular case require.

3.2.5 In assessing the suitability of a corporate entity, sole proprietor, partners or officers of a corporate entity, the institution shall have regard to inter alia:

- i) Negative information in possession of credit reference bureaus or gathered from other sources.
- ii) Any criminal record in matters relating to finance, fraud, honesty or integrity.
- iii) Reputation (based on references from at least two people of good social standing hailing from the same locality as the person and who has known the person for at least three years).
- iv) Business or work experience.
- v) Sources of funds.
- vi) The business track record of the entity in the last three years where applicable.
- vii) Any other matter which negatively or positively impacts on the person.

3.2.6 Any entity whose proprietors, partners or officers have or any individual who has been vetted by the Central Bank under any other written law, may be exempted from vetting under this Guideline.

3.2.7 Reference to “proprietor” or “partner” under this Guideline shall, in respect of other unincorporated entities include reference to persons and their titles as they are known or referred to under those unincorporated entities.

PART IV AGENCY CONTRACT AND PERMISSIBLE ACTIVITIES

- xii) Suitable limits on cash holding by the agent and also limits on individual customer payments and receipts.
- xiii) Confidentiality of customer and user information.
- xiv) Technical description of electronic devices.
- xv) Differentiation of services offered by one agent for different institutions.
- xvi) Remuneration for the agent.
- xvii) Specify that the agent shall at all times ensure safe-keeping of all relevant records, data, documents or files or alternately, such records, data, documents or files are shifted to the institution at regular pre-specified intervals for institution's safe-keeping.
- xviii) A statement to the effect that employees of an agent shall not be treated as employees of the institution and the rights and duties of such shall be agreed upon between the institution and the agent.
- xix) A framework for changing the terms of the contract and stipulations for default and termination of the contract and in particular the circumstances under which an agent can terminate a contract.
- xx) A statement that the Central Bank can at any time terminate the contract in the exercise of its powers under the Banking Act, this Guideline or any other law.
- xxi) A transition clause on the rights and obligations of the institution and the agent upon termination or cessation of the agency contract.

4.5.2 The institution and the agent may provide for other terms as they may mutually consider necessary for the better carrying out of the agent banking business.

4.6 Termination of agency contract

4.6.1 In addition to the provisions for termination of the agency contract as may be set out in the contract, an agency contract shall be terminated if an agent;

- i) Carries on agent banking business when the agent's principal commercial activity has ceased.
- ii) Is guilty of a criminal offence involving fraud, dishonesty or other financial impropriety.
- iii) Sustains a financial loss or damage to such a degree which, in the opinion of the institution, makes it impossible for the agent to gain its financial soundness within three months from the date of the loss or damage.

4.6.2 Termination under Clause 4.6.1 of this Guideline may be initiated by the institution or the Central Bank. The institution shall ensure that an agent does not continue with agent banking business when it is affected by any of the provisions of Clause 4.6.1 of this Guideline.

- 4.6.3 Where an agency contract is terminated, the institution shall cause a notice of the termination to be published within the locality of the premises where the agent was operating or in any other way or manner so as to inform the general public of the cessation of the agency contract.

PART V RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 Key Roles & Responsibilities of the institution

- 5.1.1 The institution is wholly responsible and liable for all actions or omissions of its agent and this responsibility shall extend to actions of the agent even if not authorised in the contract so long as they relate to agent banking services or matters connected therewith.
- 5.1.2 The institution shall be expected to make an explicit, informed and documented decision on the use of agents for the provision of banking services to its customers.
- 5.1.3 The institution shall maintain an effective system of internal control and oversight of the agent's activities or functions.
- 5.1.4 The institution shall ensure that proper controls are incorporated into its system so that all relevant compliance issues are noted and fully addressed, particularly the identification, assessment, monitoring and reporting on the institution's compliance.
- 5.1.5 The institution shall ensure that it has proper security control policies to safeguard the information, communication and technology systems and data from both internal and external threats.
- 5.1.6 The institution shall also be responsible for assessing the adequacy of controls of outsourced activities by taking appropriate direct or third party audits of the same as mandated under relevant outsourcing agreements.
- 5.1.7 The institution shall incorporate risk-based review of critical agent banking processes to ensure that the policies, rules, regulations and operational guidelines are followed.
- 5.1.8 The institution shall provide agents with such operation manuals and risk management policy documents as shall be needed to ensure proper provision of services to customers.

5.2 Management of agent banking business

- 5.2.1 The institution shall be responsible for developing and implementing agent banking strategy and for establishing an effective management oversight over agent banking services.

- 5.2.2 Effective management oversight shall encompass the review and approval of key aspects of the institution's security control programs and processes and security control policies and infrastructure.
- 5.2.3 Effective management oversight shall also include a comprehensive process for managing risks associated with reliance on third parties.
- 5.2.4 The institution shall ensure that the scope and coverage of its internal audit function is expanded to be commensurate with the increased complexity and risks inherent in agent banking activities and that the audit department is appropriately staffed with personnel having sufficient technical expertise to perform the expanded role.
- 5.2.5 It shall be incumbent upon the institution to take steps to ensure that it has updated and modified where necessary, its existing risk management policies and processes to cover its current or planned agent banking services.
- 5.2.6 The integration of agent banking applications with the main banking systems shall require an integrated risk management approach for all banking activities.
- 5.2.7 The institution shall provide agents with sufficient training to enable the agents adequately perform the operations and provide the services agreed upon, including training relating to the proper identification of customers, customer service, confidentiality of the information, cash security, record keeping and financial education.

5.3 Risk Management

- 5.3.1. Institutions shall pay special attention to credit risk, operational risk, legal risk, liquidity risk, reputation risk and compliance with rules for combating money laundering and financing of terrorism.
- 5.3.2. Institutions should undertake due assessment of agent's credit worthiness and set limit structures for agent's various activities commensurate with this assessment.
- 5.3.3. Product programs, procedure manuals and customer limit structures should be devised keeping in mind the implications for operational and liquidity risks for agents.
- 5.3.4. Wireless or electronic banking related risks shall be recognized, addressed and managed by institutions in a prudent manner according to the fundamental characteristics and challenges of electronic banking services.
- 5.3.5. Technology risks regarding information and data security in wireless networks shall be properly identified and mitigated.

- 5.3.6. A business continuity management plan shall be developed to mitigate any significant disruption, discontinuity or gaps in agents' functions.
- 5.3.7. The institution shall be responsible for putting in place appropriate product and operations manuals, accounting procedures and systems and for designing necessary forms/stationary to be used by the agents.
- 5.3.8. The institution shall have in place systems and personnel to adequately monitor and control agent banking operations on an ongoing basis.

5.4 Customer due diligence

5.4.1 Institutions shall carry out Customer Due Diligence (CDD) to ensure that requirements of Anti-Money Laundering/Combating Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) are not compromised.

5.4.2 The factors to consider include;

- i) Know Your Customer (KYC) requirements.
- ii) Transactional limits per day, month and year limits commensurate with customer's profile.
- iii) Maximum balance limits on debit and credit.
- iv) Minimum technological security requirements.
- v) Two factor authentication per customer per transaction.

5.4.3 Institutions shall comply with all applicable Anti-Money Laundering/Combating Financing of Terrorism AML/CFT laws and requirements.

5.5 Agent due diligence

5.5.1. Efficient and thorough Agent Due Diligence (ADD) procedures shall be put in place to mitigate risks.

5.5.2. Institutions shall be responsible for having clear, well documented Agent Due Diligence policies and procedures.

5.5.3. The Agent Due Diligence procedures shall at a minimum contain methods of identifying potential agents, initial due diligence and regular due diligence checks to be performed at specified intervals and a list of early warning signals and corrective actions to ensure proactive agent management.

5.5.4. The Agent Due Diligence procedures shall clearly specify the roles and responsibilities of various functions in the institution with regard to agent management.

5.5.5. The minimum agent selection criteria shall be defined.

5.5.6. Institutions shall ensure that agents are well established, enjoying good reputation and have the confidence of the populace in their areas of operation.

5.5.7. Institutions shall ensure that proper AML/CFT monitoring processes exist for agent banking. The necessary actions to be taken by agents in this regard should be communicated to the agents and the agents' compliance monitored.

5.6 Operational/transactional limits.

5.6.1. Institutions shall establish limits for the provision of services agreed upon with the agents.

5.6.2. The limits must be prudent and bear a relation to the volume of cash moved by the agent and the risks associated with the agent's locality for the conducting agent banking business.

5.6.3. Institutions shall set limits for each agent and where applicable, for each type of transaction.

PART VI AGENT OPERATIONS

6.1 Non-exclusivity

6.1.1. No contract between an institution and an agent shall be exclusive.

6.1.2. An agent may provide services for agent banking to multiple institutions provided that the agent has separate contracts for the provision of such services with each institution and provided further that the agent has the capacity to manage the transactions for the different institutions.

6.1.3. An institution seeking to contract an entity which has already been contracted by another institution to carry out agent banking shall assess the capacity of the agent to manage transactions for different institutions. Due regard shall be taken to the space, technological capacity and adequacy of funds or float of the agent.

6.2 Supervision of agents

6.2.1. Institutions shall be responsible for monitoring and supervising the activities of their agents.

6.2.2. Institutions should have information on the numbers and volumes of transactions carried out for each type of service by each agent. They should also monitor effective compliance with set limits and establish other prudential measures in each case.

- 6.2.3. Institutions shall implement measures to control operating risks, including having clause(s) in the contract establishing the liabilities of the agent vis-à-vis the institution.
- 6.2.4. Periodic physical visits by institution's staff or authorised persons shall be necessary to ensure that agents operate strictly within the requirements of the law, guidelines and the contract.
- 6.2.5. Notwithstanding the responsibility imposed on institutions to monitor and supervise their agents, the Central Bank may at any time, exercise its regulatory and supervisory powers under sections 27, 28 and 32 of the Banking Act and may request for such data or information or carry out such inspection as it deems necessary.

6.3 Publication of list of agents and locations.

- 6.3.1 Institutions shall publish an updated list of all their agents in their websites and such other publications as they may deem appropriate. The publications containing the list of their agents shall be disseminated to all their branches and may also be disseminated to their agents.
- 6.3.2 Institutions shall designate particular branches to be responsible for the agents operating in the locality of the respective branches.

6.4 Relocation, transfer and closure of agent premises

- 6.4.1. No agent shall relocate, transfer or close its agent banking premises without the prior written consent of the institution.
- 6.4.2. Notice of intention to relocate, transfer or close agent banking premises shall be served on the institution at least thirty days or such shorter or longer period as may be agreed upon in the contract.
- 6.4.3. Within thirty days prior to relocation or closure of agent banking premises, the institution shall apply to the Central Bank for approval and shall forward to the Central Bank the name and other information of the agent seeking to relocate, transfer or close its premises. The application shall be in accordance with Form 5 of the First Schedule.

PART VII SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS AND THE TECHNOLOGY

7.1 Real time transactions.

- 7.1.1 All transactions involving deposit, withdrawal, payment or transfer of cash from or to an account shall be real time.

7.1.2 Institutions shall ensure that agents are able to carry out real time transactions.

7.2 Minimum technical requirements for the operating systems of the agent.

7.2.1 To ensure that agent banking transactions are carried out with devices which are technically fit, institutions are required to ensure that such equipment is able to:

- i) Transmit transaction information in code.
- ii) Carry out electronic transactions on real time basis.
- iii) Allow handling under different user profiles for administration, maintenance and operation.
- iv) Reverse incomplete transactions due to error, system failure, power outage or other defects.
- v) Process or generate durable transactional documents or receipts. Electronic receipts or acknowledgements such as SMS acknowledgement are permissible.
- vi) Automatically log off an agent once the agent exhausts his daily cash limit or tries to perform an illegal or unauthorised transaction.
- vii) Generate an audit trail.

7.2.2 Institutions shall at all times monitor the safety, security and efficiency of the equipment being used to prevent any tampering or manipulation by any person.

7.3 Data and Network security Concerns

Institutions shall put in place systems that specifically and at a minimum address the following issues:

- i) Physical and logical security of infrastructure.
- ii) Availability of services.
- iii) Data confidentiality and integrity.
- iv) Encryption of PIN and electronic transactions.
- v) Customer accountability and non-repudiation on transactions.
- vi) Error messaging and exception handling.

7.4 Third-Party Service Providers

7.4.1. An institution may enter into a written contract with a third party service provider for the provision of the following services in respect of its agent banking business;

- i) Technology platform.
- ii) Agent selection.
- iii) Agent network management.
- iv) Agent training.
- v) Equipment provision.

vi) Equipment maintenance.

7.4.2. The provision of any of the services specified in Clause 7.4.1 by a third party service provider will not constitute agent banking.

7.4.3. Any third party service provider, who, in addition to providing the services specified in Clause 7.4.1, seeks to provide or render agent banking services as specified in this Guideline, shall fulfil the requirements for agent banking business and enter into an agency contract with the institution for that purpose.

7.4.4. The institution shall remain liable for the agent banking business even where a third party service provider is contracted to provide the services specified in Clause 7.4.1 of this Guideline.

PART VIII Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT)

8.1 Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) requirements;

8.1.1. Institutions shall train their agents on anti-money laundering (AML) and combating of financing of terrorism (CFT) requirements.

8.1.2. Institutions shall ensure that agents:

- i) Identify customers with at least two factor authentication like IDs, PINs, passwords, ATM card, secret code or secret message while performing any transaction requiring identification.
- ii) Report to the institution within twenty four hours, all suspicious activities that come to the agent's knowledge.
- iii) Transact agent banking business strictly as per the transactional limits prescribed by the institution.

8.2 In the fulfilment of AML/CFT requirements, institutions shall comply with the requirements of the Proceeds of Crime and Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2009, Banking Act and Prudential Guidelines on Anti-Money Laundering issued under the Banking Act.

PART IX CONSUMER PROTECTION

9.1 Consumer protection measures

As trust is the single most necessary ingredient for growth of agent banking, appropriate consumer protection systems against risks of fraud, loss of privacy and loss of service shall be put in place by institutions for purposes of establishing trust among consumers of agent banking services.

9.2 Minimum requirements

As a minimum, the following requirements shall be complied with at all times:

- i) Institutions shall establish mechanisms that will enable their customers or users to appropriately identify their agents and the services provided through such agents.
- ii) Agents shall issue receipts for all transactions undertaken through them. Institutions shall provide their agents with equipment that generate receipts or acknowledgements for transactions carried out through agents. In this regard, electronic receipts or acknowledgements are permissible.
- iii) Where an agent acts as a receiver and deliverer of documents, an acknowledgement shall be provided for all documents received or delivered by the agent to or from the customer.
- iv) A channel for communication of customer complaints to the institution shall be provided. Institutions shall provide dedicated customer care telephone lines for lodging complaints by their customers. The customers can also use this telephone line to verify with the institution, the authenticity and identity of the agent, its physical location and the validity of its agent banking business.
- v) Institutions shall establish a complaints redressal mechanism and shall ensure proper communication of this mechanism to their customers.
- vi) All customer complaints shall be addressed within a reasonable time and in any case not later than thirty days from the date of reporting or lodging the complaint with the institution. Institutions shall keep record of all customer complaints and how such complaints are redressed.
- vii) An agent shall have signs that are clearly visible to the public indicating that it is a provider of services of the institution with which it has an agency contract. The agent shall not however represent to the public that it is an institution.
- viii) In the provision of agent banking services, institutions shall use secure systems that ensure customer information confidentiality.
- ix) The customer should be made aware of the fact that he is not supposed to carelessly store his PIN and other critical information or share such information with other parties including agents.
- x) An institution may establish contact centres to facilitate easy communication between a customer and the institution.

9.3 Disclosures

9.3.1 An agent shall disclose to the institution's customers in a conspicuous place on the agent's premises:

- i) The name of the institution it is working for and the institution's logo.
- ii) A list of banking services offered by the agent.
- iii) A written notice to the effect that if the electronic system is down, no transaction shall be carried out.
- iv) A written notice to the effect that services shall be provided subject to availability of funds.
- v) The list of charges or fees applicable for each service which are payable to the institution by the customers.
- vi) The dedicated telephone line through which customers can contact the institution.
- vii) The name, telephone numbers and location of the institution's branch to which the agent reports its agent activities.

9.3.2 On request by a customer, an agent shall show a copy of the approval letter issued by the Central Bank, a copy of the appointment letter from the institution and the current license for the commercial activity being undertaken by the agent. These documents should be readily available in the agent banking premises.

9.4 Branding.

Institutions may choose to brand their agent network service under any brand name. However use of protected words like bank, finance, financial institution, financial intermediary or their derivatives or any other word suggesting that the agent is itself an institution is prohibited.

9.5 Public Awareness and Sensitization

Institutions shall carry out sensitization of their agents, customers and about their agent banking business to the public. This shall be through public awareness campaigns, brochures and other programmes as the nature of the institution's products may require.

PART X REPORTING REQUIREMENTS AND CENTRAL BANK OVERSIGHT

10.1 Submission of data and statistical returns to the Central Bank.

Every institution shall, at the end of every calendar month and not later than the 10th day of the next month, submit to the Central Bank as prescribed in the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Schedules, data and other information on agent operations including information on;

- i) Nature, value, volume and geographical distribution of operations or transactions.
- ii) Incidents of fraud, theft or robbery.
- iii) Customer complaints.
- iv) Remedial measures taken to address customer complaints.

10.2 Reporting

Every institution shall forward to the Central Bank not later than 31st March of each year and in the prescribed Form set out in the Third Schedule, an annual report on its agent banking operations including the names, number and other information on agent operations for the previous year.

10.3 Powers of the Central Bank over agents.

In addition to any other power conferred on the Central Bank by the Central Bank of Kenya Act, Banking Act, Regulations or Prudential Guidelines issued under the said Acts, the Central Bank shall have power to:

- i) Request for any information from any agent at any time as the Central Bank may deem necessary;
- ii) Carry out impromptu or scheduled inspection of the books and premises of the agent;
- iii) Direct an agent to take such action or desist from such conduct as the Central Bank may find necessary;
- iv) Direct the termination of the agency contract and closure of the agency business as it may find necessary;
- v) Direct the institution to take such action or measures against or on behalf of the agent as the Central Bank may find appropriate;

- vi) Direct the institution to take such remedial action arising from the conduct of an agent as it may deem fit.

PART XI REMEDIAL MEASURES AND ADMINISTRATIVE SANCTIONS

11.1 Remedial measures

If an institution or its agent fails to comply with this Guideline, the Central Bank may pursue any or all corrective actions against the institution as provided under the Banking Act.

11.2 Administrative sanctions

In addition to the use of remedial measures in 11.1, the Central Bank may pursue any or all of the following administrative sanctions against an institution, its board of directors, officers or agents:

- i) Prohibition from engaging in any further agent banking business;
- ii) Prohibition from contracting new agents;
- iii) Revocation of agent approval;
- iv) Termination of agency contract;
- v) Withholding corporate approvals.

PART XII AMENDMENT OF THE GUIDELINE

12.1 The Central Bank may at any time amend, delete, vary, add or change any provision of this Guideline and such amendment, deletion, variation, addition or change shall become effective from the date of notification to the institutions by the Central Bank.

12.2 Such notification may be effected through a circular, directive, notice, letter or other means communicating the intention of the Central Bank to the institutions generally.

EFFECTIVE DATE

13.1 Effective date: The effective date of this Guideline shall be 1st May 2010.
