CBK CELEBRATES KENYA'S ELECTION TO THE UN SECURITY COUNCIL

The Central Bank of Kenya (CBK) joins the nation in celebrating Kenya's election to be a non-permanent member of the United Nations Security Council. The election will see Kenya sit on the Security Council for a two-year term beginning in 2021. CBK Governor Dr. Patrick Njoroge said: "The election affirms Kenya's continental leadership and its commitment to multilateralism. This is particularly important in the current context of the COVID-19 pandemic. Kenya will have an opportunity to introduce the African perspective in this crucial global body. I congratulate the team involved and especially the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, whose tireless efforts led to this important outcome."
