

TRAINING CALENDAR 2026/2027

Who We Are

The Central Bank of Kenya Institute of Monetary Studies (CBK IMS), formerly known as the Kenya School of Monetary Studies (KSMS), was established in 1997 by the Central Bank of Kenya to spearhead capacity-building initiatives for the financial sector. The Institute is strategically located 8 kilometres from Nairobi's Central Business District, along North Mathare Road, off Thika Road.

Vision

A premier African hub in central banking and financial sector training.

Mission

To deliver specialized capacity building programs and generate knowledge that promotes resilient, inclusive and stable financial systems.

Core values

CBK-IMS training practices are anchored on CBK values of professionalism, Integrity, Innovativeness, Diversity and Inclusion.

What We Do

CBK IMS is a unique institution committed to strengthening the financial sector through world-class capacity-building interventions. Since inception, the Institute responsive to the dynamic needs of the financial industry needs, driven by the rapidly changing business landscape, evolving global economic trends and the growing demand for quality services. Recognizing that capacity building is central to the success and competitiveness of financial institutions, the Institute has continually expanded its offerings to support this growth. The Institute serves as a gateway for knowledge dissemination not only in Kenya but across Sub-Saharan Africa, making it a hub for regional financial training and development. The Institute also prides itself in its diverse pool of experienced expert facilitators from local, regional and international markets. These professionals support the Institute in content development, design and delivery of our programs. Looking ahead, the Institute is committed to offering commitment to delivering high quality technical and specialized training programs, seminar series and conferences leveraging on the knowledge-base and expertise of strategic partners in content development, design and delivery of our programs.

We look forward to welcoming local and international delegates to our programs scheduled for 2026/2027, details of which are contained in this calendar.
